Willard's Saturday

Dear Sister

I am very sorry to hear that you are suffering so much pain.

As Dr. Gleason is sick also I am the more anxious to come out and be with you but the Dr. advises that I should keep quiet. A cold with ^{me is} a very serious thing and requires great care on my part.

I send you Dr. Hall's prescription with directions for using it. He says you ^{have} a rash with some hard naïve before it, which I forget should it remain on the surface it would be of benefit.
He does not consider your symptoms at all alarming.
Should you not feel better let me know and I will, bring a physician out with me. Send me word how you are. It is important if you should not receive relief from the medicine, that you should see a Doctor and I must insist on your doing so.

Your affectionate aunt
H. Achorn
